One arrested for burglary, criminal mischief and child neglect

On Wednesday, May 1, 2024 at 11:56 P.M., officers from the Lake City Police Department were dispatched to NW Huntsboro Street, to the report of a burglary in progress.

Upon arrival, officers spoke with a victim who stated they heard someone knocking on the front door but, when asked who was there, no one would answer. The unknown person then went to the sliding glass door and again began to knock but would not advise who they were when asked. The victim called 911 and was on the phone with communication officers when the unknown person went to a window near the front door, broke the window and entered the residence. The victim observed officers arriving and left the residence to meet responding officers in the yard.

Upon approaching the front door, officers discovered Haley Ann Nicole Blunt, 24, nude and bleeding from injuries she sustained while breaking the window and entering the residence. Blunt was taken into custody EMS responded and transported her to a local hospital for care of her wounds. Once released from the hospital, she was transported to the Columbia County Detention Center without further incident.

During the investigation, it was discovered Blunt lives in a nearby residence and her two young children were inside the residence without adult supervision. They were found inside the residence safe and later turned over to a family member.
